

Canterbury Golf Representative & Squad Code of Conduct

This code of conduct applies to all Canterbury representative and potential representative players. It sets out your responsibilities to act in the best interest of the game and to maintain proper standards of integrity, conduct and performance.

PRINCIPLES OF BEHAVIOUR

Players should fulfil their obligations to Canterbury Golf with professionalism and integrity.

- Players are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner.
- Maintain the appropriate standard of dress and show reasonable care for the uniform and gear supplied by Canterbury Golf. Canterbury Golf reserve the right to invoice a player for loss or damage to Canterbury Golf uniform and gear.

Players should respect the rights of the Officials and other players.

- Refrain from conduct that may compromise your integrity.
- Respect and follow instruction from Canterbury Golf Officials and Management.
- Treat playing partners and people with whom you have official contact with courtesy and respect.

Players should not bring Canterbury Golf into disrepute through their activities on or off the course.

- Players should avoid any activity (on or off the course), such as offensive language or abuse of equipment or the golf course which could reflect badly on Canterbury Golf or jeopardise its relationships with Clubs, Officials, Sponsors or the general public.

All players that are representing Canterbury or potential representative players are subject to drug testing for banned substances as laid down in New Zealand Golf's Anti-Doping Policy. Any player infringing this policy or refusing to take a test may be removed from a team.

BREACHES OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Any behaviour or action that leads to a complaint against you, which may be in breach of this Code, will be sent to an Independent Code of Conduct Commissioner. The Commissioners shall preside over and pass judgement on disciplinary matters or breaches of the Code of Conduct Policy of Canterbury Golf.

The Commissioners have the power and authority to hear and determine complaints relating to Canterbury representative or potential representative players.
