CGI Coaching & Development Manager Announced

Canterbury Golf has announced the appointment of Karen de Lautour as the Association's new Coaching and Development Manager.

General Manager Doug McSweeney commented 'We're thrilled to appoint Karen to the role of Coaching and Development Manager for the Association. Her experience as a representative golfer and golf administrator made her the perfect person for the position'.

de Lautour has an impressive record as a player and golf administrator with representative playing honours which include Auckland, Hawkes Bay-Poverty Bay and NZ Junior Tasman Cup. As an administrator de Lautour was General Manager at the Russley Golf Club from 1997-2000.

The role is supported by New Zealand Golf as part of their coaching and development framework. Karen will begin her role with Canterbury Golf on Monday 8 September 2008.

Canterbury Women's Interprovincial Team 2008

The 2008 Canterbury Women's Interprovincial Team was named following the conclusion of the Canterbury Interprovincial Championship held at the Christchurch Golf Club on the weekend of 29, 30 & 31 August.

Canterbury Women's Golf Team (in playing order): Jenny Sim (Russley), May Chang (Waitikiri), Nelly Tulisi (Waimairi Beach), Hayley Beaumont (Christchurch), Elisha Crosbie (Coringa), Abigail Kingsford (Waimairi Beach, (Travelling reserve), Sylvie Williams (Waimairi Beach, Non-travelling reserve). Joanne Harkeress (Team Manager).

NZG Foundation Camp Members Named

Our congratulations to Keelan Kilpatrick (Russley) & Nelly Tulisi (Waimairi Beach) who have both been named in the upcoming New Zealand Golf Foundation Camp. The camp forms part of the NZ Golf pathway for elite players and will be held in Cambridge for 4 days in late September. Keelan and Nelly are two of eighteen players selected nation wide aged between 13 and 17 years.

Jenny Sim wins Canterbury Match-play

Jenny Sim from the Russley Golf Club beat Catherine Knight 4 and 3 in the championship final of the Canterbury Provincial Golf Championship played at the Christchurch Golf Club over the weekend (29-31 August). Sim beat L Gebbie (7 and 6) in round 1, C Bates (at the 19th) in the quarter finals and H Beaumont (7 and 6) in the semi final.

At the conclusion of the Championships, Sim was also named number 1 for the Canterbury Women's Golf Team, which will contest the NZ Interprovincials in Nelson in early October (7-11 October)
