Golfer Scores Rare Double

On Saturday, 25th July, 2009, McLeans Island Golf Club Member, Tony Davies, scored the very rare feat of scoring two holes in one in the same round of golf, during the Club's regular Saturday competition round. Davies, a 21 handicap player was playing in the Club's Battersby Cup Canadian Foursomes event and was partnered on the day by Derek O'Grady.

His successes were on the 131 metre par 3 No. 2 hole and the 142 metre par 3 No. 17 hole.

Most golfers just dream of scoring one hole in one in a life time, but to score two in one round is just unbelievable luck+said Davies on his return to the Clubhouse. Club records show that this achievement is certainly a first for the McLeans Island Golf Club and is surely an extremely rare occasion for golf in New Zealand.
